1418 : PERA (or Peru) Township, Licking Co. (later, Morrow Co.) Ohio, where he owned a wagon shop. He moved to the present site of Cardington, Morrow County, in 1822, and there he had a farm, mill privileges on the Westmore River, and land where Cardington now stands, and he built the first saw mill, grist mill, wagon shop, and foundry. He and his children, Isaac (1414), Sylvia (1415), and Joseph (1416), arrived to Iowa within the period of 1837 to 1839, but his wife did not accompany him. There he acquired (some, at least, at scrip or head rights) a large amount (4040 acres has been mentioned) of land in Harris and Hamilton counties and at Corn Hill in Williamson County.

He and his wife were Quakers, but his children united with the Methodist-Episcopal church.

- 1499 HOWARD M., b. 15 March 1853; d. 7 Apr. 1886, at Nantucket.
1500 HOWARD, b. 25 Aug. 1855.

He was a master whaler, being identified with New Bedford, Mass., as well as Nantucket. At the age of 12 years, he was a typesetter with the Nantucket Journal for about 15 months; and he was also employed by the Nantucket Inquirer and Mirror at times. He then spent several months on the Cross Rip lightship, served an apprenticeship of about two years and a half in a cooper's shop, and served on coasting vessels between Nantucket and New York for a while.

His whaling career began on the ship CONSTITUTION, with her voyage in 1852, and he served on this ship for twenty years, leaving her in 1872. Between then and 1858, when he sailed on the whaling ship SPARTAN, he was in the merchant service, going to Europe, then (in 1858) to San Francisco as master of the RALPH (owner, George B. Upton) from Boston, and also made another voyage to San Francisco, one to the Chinese Islands, and one to the Philippine Islands. He retired after the return of the SPARTAN in 1863, and settled at Nantucket, where he died in his home. 100 barrels was the largest yield that he ever secured from a single whale.

The whaling ship UNCAS (400 tons: built at Fair-haven in 1828: owner, Elijah Swift) of Fairhaven. Captain Henry C. Bunker, sailed for the Pacific Ocean on 17 Nov.
1828: she returned on 15 July 1831, with 3468 bbl. of sperm oil, valued at $68,000. "Nowhere except in gold or diamond mining could so much money be so readily made as by fortunate ships like the 'Uncas' of Fairhaven. Captain Bunker, which arrived in 1831 from a voyage of two years and eight months with 3,468 barrels of sperm oil, valued at $68,000" (mc).
(bk, 424: md, 161: sr, 116, 268.)

On 9 Nov. 1831, the whaling ship UNCAS (400 tons: owner, Elijah Swift) of Fairhaven. Captain Henry C. Bunker, sailed for the Pacific: she returned in 1835, with 2900
bbl. of sperm oil. Among other records carved on the rocks to go to sea. I said, "I will go to sea if you say so." He said, "I will go to sea if you say so."

Capt. Chase returned from whatever and soon at another ship. I was called a boy, as Captain, I went on board as I thought in that high station and stick by the ship until the day of sailing when Capt. Chase said to me, "Henry I want you to go up get a cask and bring down my bed and chest." I said to him shall I bring down my things too, his answer was, "I am sorry to tell you Henry your mother with the advice of your Uncle thinks you had better not go." I choked and choked. I was too much of a man to drop a tear. I soon had the cask at the door and the bed and chest in the cart and soon alongside of the ship without dropping a tear. She cast off and was soon out of sight. I could now relieve myself by a copious flood of tears. I sat down on a pair of steps and soon cried out all the ship fever I had in me. I really believe I had nearly the sympathy of the whole City for many of the passersby hearing my sob would stop and ask what is the matter my boy or what is the matter my little man. My universal answer was nothing not wishing to enlighten my audience as I said before I cried all the fever out of me, and in the time of the long voyage we moved to Kentucky and in 1811 I was bound for seven years as an apprentice to learn the art, trade and mystery of a Cooper. In 1812 the war came on with Britain, in 1815 we had given Johnny Bull such a licking that he was glad to make peace with the Yankees. I now had a trade and had negotiated with my Master for three years of my time so I was free when I was 18, now the question came up what shall I do. go to sea. No, the fever was completely eradicated. It was then I wanted some friend or rich relation to say to me I will set you up in the Coopering business, but I had no such friend. I was soon offered a berth as Cooper of a ship. I dreaded to think of it, but I pondered it in my mind for some days and finally shipped as cooper of the old MSK. Well now my dear boy I am coming to the point. You see what a great difference there is in our conditions. I was poor indeed with no Father nor rich friends. You on the other hand have Father, Mother, brothers and sisters and no doubt your Father has some good friends around him, he dont want you to go to sea nor your Mother nor your Grandfather nor your Grandmother. I should therefore advise you to listed to your Father and Mother. San Francisco is a great City and in a few years after this cursed Slavholders Rebellion is wiped out of the Commerce of that City with the advantages of the Pacific Rail Road will be quite equal to the City of New York, therefore I shall advise you under your circumstances never to go to sea, but stick to your school get a good education and by the time you are twenty one or before you will never be sorry that you took up with your best friends advice. ... We are all well at this time. Aunt Lizzie talks of leaving here in June. Liza is a good boy and is doing well and is a great help to us in farming and other little jobs. Your Grandfather joins me in a deal of love to you all. I have no more sisters and brothers, but I have no family. Write me soon and say that you have concluded to abandon the idea of ever being a sailor. Believe me as ever your affectionate Grandfather.

The Seaside Press of 18 Oct. 1873 gave a list of persons taxed (rate being $10.40 on $1000) at Falmouth in 1873, and among them was Henry C. Bunker, whose tax was $36.09 (cf. June 1910).

She m., 13 Oct. 1840, PETER THACHER HOMER (b. 22 Feb. 1804; d.

24 Sept. 1887) of Boston, and there were at least four children (Mrs.

CHARLES DAVIS, jr. was the only one living in 1930) by this marriage.

1644 WILLIAM EDGAR, b. 17 Oct. 1822.

1645 FREDERICK, b. 9 Apr. 1826; d. 21 May 1827.

1646 ALBERTINE, b. 9 Nov. 1828, at New York, N.Y.

1647 EDWARD SOUTHWORTH, b. 15 Feb. 1833; d. 27 March 1835.

Ann Southworth was a descendant of CONSTANT SOUTHWORTH of Duxbury in the Plymouth Colony, whose mother, ALICE (CARPENTER) SOUTHWORTH, widow of EDWARD SOUTHWORTH, became the second wife of Governor WILLIAM BRADFORD.

William Jenkins Bunker lived at New York, N.Y., with address at the Mansion House, 39 Broadway, from 1821 to 1849, being listed as "late Mansion House, 187 Broadway" in 1850. His name was erroneously spelled as William I. Bunker in the earlier directories. (mpa: nb.) The parents of Albertine Bunker (1646) were described as William Jenkins Bunker and Ann Southworth of New York, when she m. in 1851 (nd, v.59).

He opened Bunker's Hotel (or Bunker's Mansion House) at 39 Broadway in 1831. His success was such that he accumulated a handsome fortune, and then sold the property and retired, spending the remainder of his life after 1850 largely in Europe. The hotel comprised three buildings, the central of which was a large double house, built of brick, that had been built by General Alexander Macomb (or McComb) about 1786 as a residence for himself. It stood on the westerly side of the street where all buildings had been destroyed between Morris and Barclay streets in the great fire of 1776, and is said to have been located on the site of the first creation of any kind by the Dutch on Manhattan Island, consisting of a small redoubt built in 1615. The house had been occupied by Louis Otto, the French Charge d'Affaires, and then, on 25 Feb. 1790, became the residence of General George Washington. At that time, it was the finest private home at New York, and it was known as the Mansion House. (bfu: nap, v.5, 63, 365: vs, 1855, 582, 583; 1865, 518.)

The following anecdote (msb, 97) refers to Alexander Downs Bunker.- "It was on 'Seconsset bank, many years ago, that Capt. Alex. Bunker, Keeper of Sarkaty Light, was having a quarrel with a lot of 'Seconsseters, during which he pointed his finger and said: 'That's due east from here.' 'Guess you're mistaken, Capt. Bunker,' said one of his hearers. The old skipper, who was of stubborn disposition, took immediate exception to this interference with his opinion, and his opponent, knowing well whom he had to deal with, slipped quietly home and brought forth a compass. Setting it on a post, he remarked, 'Now, Captain, satisfy yourself.' The old skipper squinted and looked, and looked and squinted, finally blurted out: 'Well, well, Mr. Harris, I've lived in error these forty year.'"

"Peru, Delaware Co., O., Tuesday, July 28th, A.D., 1862. Mrs. John E. King, Caldwell, Milan Co., Texas. Dear Sister Sylvia:- It is with reluctance that I commence this letter. It is not generally an unpleasant task but on this occasion it is rendered such by the necessity which is laid upon me. Our dear Mother is no more! She departed this life last Friday at 12 o'clock noon (July 28th) since which time you may be sure we have been very lonely- you may have been prepared for such news by Peleg's last letter but I do not know what he wrote. She had been failing for some time- her disease was an affection of the heart & lungs Mr. Briggs says a kind of angina of the lungs. She had enjoyed better health through the winter than at any other time since I have lived here but when warm weather came on she became feeble from difficulty of breathing which sometime nearly resulted in fits and very much impaired her memory and the faculty of speech but she had her senses & was able to help herself some until about 12 hours before her death she conversed but little for several weeks & was generally understood with difficulty she endured a good deal of bodily suffering which it was impossible to relieve but by the aid of kind friends assisting us we were enabled to accomplish all for her relief that could be done by care & nursing &c. Hannah had gone to live with Peleg at Marion for a time but Mother grew worse so fast that she came home about 4 weeks ago & devoted her whole time to the care of Mother. I suppose she will now remain at home at least for some time. With the exceptions above we have all been well since I last wrote to you I received your letter in due time but neglected to answer. I have also seen yours to Peleg. was glad as we always are to hear from you & should if it were under other circumstances be well pleased with the idea of your coming into the United States, I do not however to be much nearer you then emigration is fully conducted correspondence will be cheaper for a letter now goes to any part of the Union for ten (10) cents which will be cheap enough when the Union extends all over this Continent as it will if we continue to annex as fast as we have applicants- you will perceive that we in this town are not so unanimous in favor of annexation as in Caldwell, as your Uncle Stewart & every other man at the north is opposed to the entire scheme. I had a letter from Abner dated July 12. His family is all well but Letitia & she is able to nurse the Babe Sylvia (which is about (10 months old) and so small. The other two boys at home is so large. At her house. The children are the largest here. (11) William (12) and (13) John (14)

a second cousin of ours. (15) and (16) and (17) and (18) in Battle Creek. (19) and (20) and (21) and (22) and (23) are very respectable & intelligent people. They are an only daughter and is married to a (24) and he is a member in the store and bank in Cleveland. (25) and (26) and (27) attend a school school for little girls & boys. (28) years old. (29) and (30) and (31) and (32) and (33) and (34) but Sibbia does not enjoy good health. (35) is about most of the time feels best when she rides with them. They have a good buggy & she rides with them most of the time when he goes from home to work. (36) has been made added to Conference as a suitable person to enter the travelling connection & we expect he will go on to a circuit at the Annual Conference which will be in Marion the 14th of August. (37) and (38) and (39) and (40) and (41) and (42) five weeks old they call (43) and (44). (45) was here while mother was sick & again at the funeral. They expect to visit us this week. (46) and (47) and (48) have no talk of getting married but are a prospect that I know of and they are not of those who keep such things private. They may spend their days in (49) for some time. I know Justin is going to school. He expects to attend until Spring when he will go to a trade the wagon making business. Probably he will be nineteen years old & expects to stay two years. Our little Chaps grow finely and always healthy & not overly cross. Charles Curtis is getting to be something of a talker & runs all over the farm & gives his mom great uneasiness for fear she will lose him. Sylvia Allison is ten months old to day does not run alone but soon will we think them about as smart as the common run to say the least. Johnna Jane is 18 years old. She lives at home yet & probably will. She is a very dear girl & belongs to the church. Johnna Jane & Purvis Isaac & Sibbia & G.F. & George & Sarah so you see they do not want for family. I have but little hope of a general nature to write and little time on this occasion to write it. There have been but few revivals of religion this way for six months past perhaps the world has too strong a hold of Christians for a good work to be done. In the branch of the Church to which we belong the division may be the hinder-ring cause what ever it may be the Lord speed its removal and let the work of Salvation prosper. Let us know in your next what some Methodists are about to do in regard to the division I believe that your Brother Alexander voted for the Separation at the Louisville Convention notwithstanding you said he was opposed to dividing the church.
What is your opinion in regard to the whole subject? I suppose (50) and (51) and (52) and (53) and (54) and (55) had to (56) (illegible) then himself but he cannot right away. (57) and (58) and (59) and (60) and (61) and (62) have gone for them before now if they could not raised the means. And now they are (63) (illegible) there are fairs nearly smothered out and will be able to go after a while if they like- I think the time cant be far distant when some of us will visit Texas and see how you get along- This has not been a favorable Season for crops wheat is poor it was killed by a frost in the Spring. Hay is very light from the same cause together with early drought- the prospect for a corn crop is now good if the seasons remain favorable we shall have an abundant harvest- This country remains much the same as when you left there are some changes it is true but most of the old People are yet alive people must die in all countries & wear away slowly here Seely Gregory died about six weeks ago he has been ailing several years Stephen W. Doughty died about the same time of Consumption Peleg Shermans Father died some 3 weeks-since worn out with age and so we pass off- James Purvis has been sick about six months it has been thought that he had the consumption he is better now & perhaps may get well- Aunts folks are all well but Isaac he poor fellow has been crazy about six months & is in the Lunatic Assylum at Columbus & will never get well- Write soon Affectionately Your Brother Thos. S. Bunker Sylvia King Sarah & all our folk wish to be remembered to yourself & husband say to John that perhaps I will carry on my correspondence with him instead of his Lady when we get a little better acquainted T.S.B." At the railroad crossing, on the east side of Orange Street at Nantucket, there was, in 1881, an old-appearing house of the League style, placed in that location by Christopher Bunker about 1756. It remained in the Bunker family for over half a century, and was then owned successively by Benjamin and Peter Raymond, and Alexander Bunker, being purchased by William Rodley in 1876. Its form suggests an earlier construction than 1756, and there is a possibility that it was erected there by James Macy, or moved there from another location. (N.Y., v. 2, bull. 1, 272.)

UNPLACED
INDIVIDUALS OR FAMILIES

This group consists of those who probably belong to the Nantucket branch of the family, or who should be tentatively considered on that basis. Some have been placed here merely because of a possible association. Many others have been inserted in the main body of this work, inasmuch as their genealogical position, although tentative, seemed more secure.

2700 In July 1802, the ELIZA, Captain BUNKER (2700), sailed on a sealing voyage (sr,198). In July 1802, the ELIZA BUNKER sailed on a sealing voyage (saq).

2701 On 15 Oct. 1803, the whaling brig REDECCA of Nantucket, Captain BUNKER (2701), sailed for Patagonia (sr,200).

2702 On 15 Oct. 1803, the brig SWALLOW, Captain BUNKER (2702), sailed for Patagonia (saq).

2703 In 1809, the whaling ship ABIGAIL of Sag Harbor, N.Y., Captain BUNKER (2703), sailed for Brazil (sr,210).

In 1810, the whaling ship ABIGAIL of Sag Harbor, N.Y., Captain BUNKER (2703), sailed for Brazil: she returned on 12 Aug. 1811, with 800 bbl. of whale oil (sr,210).

2704 In 1810, the whaling brig UNION of Nantucket, Captain BUNKER (2704), sailed for the South Coast: she returned on 11 Jan. 1811 (saq: sr,210).

In 1815, the whaling brig UNION of Nantucket, Captain BUNKER (2704), sailed for the Atlantic Ocean: she returned on 20 Oct. 1815, clean of whale oil, having been thrown on her beam-ends and damaged in a gale (saq: sr,218).

2705 In 1820, the whaling sloop DISPATCH of Nantucket, Captain BUNKER (2705), sailed for the Atlantic: she was last reported with 25 sperm (saq: sr,230).

On 28 May 1822, the whaling sloop DISPATCH of Nantucket, Captain BUNKER (2705), sailed for Cape de Verdes: she returned on 1 July 1823 (saq: sr, 242).

2706 On 17 Oct. 1822, the whaling ship CONNECTICUT (built in 1822) from New London, Conn., Captain BUNKER (2706), sailed for the Pacific Ocean: she returned on 30 Apr. 1825, with 2154 bbl. of sperm oil (sr,244).

2707 In 1828, ".... As no opportunity offered, he crossed to Valparaiso, and finding no prospect there of recruiting his exhausted finances, he went as mate of a vessel to Callao. There he (GEORGE HURN MORSE, Ed.) became acquainted with a man named BUNKER (2707), who had been master of a merchant bark, and was then proprietor of a launch of eighteen tons burden. The health of Bunker was so impaired, and his circumstances so reduced, that he could not fit her out. Mr. Hobbs therefore undertook the task, on the understanding that he was to become part proprietor, and that Bunker should accompany him on the Voyage to Pitcairn (Island.- Ed.). He spent the little money he possessed in fitting out the vessel, and the two men embarked alone on this voyage of 5500 miles. Fortunately they had a fine-weather passage, and accomplished it in six weeks. From fatigue and want of sleep during that period, Bunker became so ill that he died a few weeks after his arrival at Pitcairn, and the launch having been hauled up on the rocky shore of the island, her wood-work and timbers served for the construction of a house for Mr. Hobbs, who became, like Evans and Buffett, a permanent settler in the colony." (ben,176).

2708 A BUNKER (2708) was among the crew of the ARETHUSA, probably a fictitious whaling vessel, mentioned in a tale by William H. Macy (sr,160-166).

2709 Captain BUNKER (2709) of the ship MARCIA GREENLEAF rescued myself and a companion from an overturned boat near Port Royal, S.Car., in 1876 (sbc).

2710 In 1810, the family of Widow BUNKER (2710), at Hudson, Columbia Co., N.Y., consisted of one male of 1 to 9 years, one female of 16 to 25, and another of 26 to 44 (bg, from cbz,v.6,715).

2711 In consequence of the War of 1812, Mrs. BUNKER (2711) and her granddaughter removed to Wareham (saq).

2712 About 1840, a BUNKER (2712) was minister of the Universalist church at Hudson, N.Y. (mh,93).

2713 A BUNKER (2713) m. CHARLES H. ROBINSON, and lived at Nantucket in 1909 (baf).

2714 ABBY ANN BUNKER (2714) m., 25 Feb. 1844, at New Bedford, Mass., AMOS CHASE jr. (bbh).

2715 ABRAHAM BUNKER (2715) was recorded as an "innate" in the returns (1772) for Eshter Town, Lancaster Co., Pa., and the amount of his tax was 10 s.: his valuation was $8.10.0 in 1778-1780 under the state tax in Penns Township, Northumberland Co., Pa; and he was recorded as having one horse and one cow, but no acres nor negroes, in the transcript of taxables in Lack Township, Cumberland Co., Pa., in 1782. (cb)

In 1780, the family of Abraham Bunker (2715), in the east part of Cumberland County, Pa., consisted of one free white male of 16 years or over, one under 16, and five free white females (bg, from cai,80).

His warrantee of 100 acres in Cumberland County was surveyed on 7 Nov. 1786 (eb).

THE SIAMSESE TWINS

The Siamse twins, CHANG and ENG (or ING: they were generally called CHANG-ENG), were born of Chinese parents in May 1811, at Ueklong (about sixty miles from Bangkok, Siam), and died on 17 Jan. 1874, at Mt. Airy, Surry Co., N.Car., one having suffered a stroke in 1870.

On 1 Apr. 1829, they left Tringana, Siam, on the ship SACHEM, Captain Abel Coffin (b. 21 Oct. 1792, at Newburyport, Mass.; d. 23 Aug. 1857, at St. Helena), with the consent of their mother, and arrived at Boston, Mass., on 16 Aug. 1829.

They were exhibited extensively in America and Europe between 24 Aug. 1829 and 7 Aug. 1836, the date of their return to New York from Europe. They travelled under the protection of the captain, but did not share in the profits until they became of age on 1 June 1832, when they began to act on their own account, and, by 1850, had accumulated a fortune of about $60,000, of which about ten thousand was invested in real estate, slaves, and other property.

Their assumption of the surname of BUNKER (or BUNKERS) was said to have been at the suggestion of FRED BUNKER (2729) of 14 Ann St., New York, N.Y. (bb1); or in deference to a resident (possibly a lady) of that name in New York, N.Y., from whom they had received numerous evidences of kindly feeling (mbr). Shortly after their retirement from public life, they initiated the formalities necessary for naturalization (sbp), which were completed, and the Legislature of North Carolina, by special act, had, before 1850, legalized their surname of BUNKER, which they had assumed some years previously.

By 16 Nov. 1839, they had purchased a farm in North Carolina, and engaged in that occupation; and they were on a farm at Trap (or Trapp) Hill, Wilkes Co., N.C., by 16 July 1840, and they had a mansion house there. In the fall of 1846, the twins and their families removed to Mount Airy, Surry Co., N.Car. Their house was in Surry (or Surrey) County by 1850, their residence being recorded as at Stewart's Creek in that year. They were living at Mt. Airy by 1855, resided in a house in Mt. Airy District in 1860, and each had a farm with a house, not over a half mile apart, in Mt. Airy Township in 1870.

They m., 13 Apr. 1843, in Wilkes County, by Elder Colby Sparks of the Baptist church, two sisters of Dutch and Irish descent, ADELAIDE (or ADELADE, or ADALADE) YATES (or YEATES, or YEATS: b. in N.Car.) and SARAH (or SALLIE) ANN YATES (or YEATES, or YEATS: b. in N.Car.) of Wilkes County, daughters of DAVID YEATES, Chang marrying the former and Eng the latter.

Their sons were all prosperous, although most of them were born deaf.

ENG BUNKER (2800) and Sarah Ann Yates had eleven children (surname BUNKER), including probably the following (all b. in North Carolina: see p.620).-

- 2802 CATHERINE (or CATHARINE, or KATE).
- 2803 JULIA A.
- 2804 (STEPHEN) DECATUR.
- 2805 JAMES (probably JAMES MONTGOMERY).
- 2806 PATRICK HENRY (see below).
- 2807 WILLIAM O.
- 2808 FREDERICK (or FRED) M.(?).
- 2809 RAZILA V.

CHANG BUNKER (2801) and Adelaide Yates had ten children (surname BUNKER: three sons and seven daughters), consisting probably of the following (all b. in North Carolina: see p.620).-

- 2810 JOSEPHINE.
- 2811 CHRISTOPHER W.
- 2812 NANCY.
- 2813 MARY A.
- 2814 VICTORIA.
- 2815 LOUISA.
- 2816 ALBERT.
- 2817 JESSE. He was a deaf-mute, and was killed by lightning on 11 June 1909, in his tobacco-barn in Surry County, aet. 48.
- 2818 LIZZIE.
- 2819 HETTIE.

Patrick Henry Bunker (2806: see above) m. MOLLY -----, and they were divorced, she taking the children and receiving the farm in Sumner County. He lived, aet. 76, in the Barber County Home at Medicine Lodge, Kansas. Their children were

- 2820 JAMES HENRY. He was a mechanic at Kiowa, Kansas.
- 2821 FREDERICK MARSHAL. He was a farmer in Oklahoma.
- 2822 GEORGE. He was a farmer near Atchison, Kan.
- 2823 DELIA LEE. She m. ----- WHITE, and lived at Blackwell, Okla.
- 2824 MYRTLE. She m. ----- COOPER.
- 2825 FANCY ANN. She m. ----- DAVIS, who was a barber at Hutchison, Kansas.

CENSUS RETURNS

The original records (cpa) of the federal census (see Preface) have been searched by bg, and the results in certain localities with which the Nantucket branch of the family has been definitely or tentatively identified are here recorded, as well as records pertaining to others mentioned in this section.

If a list is not arranged alphabetically in the original, it may indicate propinquity of families.

A family group may include others than the parents and their children.

Each census to, and including, 1840 divided the members of a family or group into certain age groups, and some also specified the number engaged in certain occupations, that will be indicated by A (agriculture), C (commerce), M (manufacturing), N (navigation), and P (professorial) herein. Commencing with 1850, the name, age, and occupation of each individual was given, as well as other data.

For the sake of brevity, some lists here presented will mention only the apparent heads or senior members of the Bunker families or groups, and further details may be found in the body of this work. A series of digits after the name will have a certain significance, viz.:-

1790.- They indicate, respectively, the number of free white males of 16 years or over (including the head of the family), free white males under 16, and free white females (including the head of the family).

1800.- The number of males of 1 to 9 years of age, of 10 to 15, of 16 to 25, of 26 to 44, and of 45 or more; and of females of the same age limits. (NOTE.- The text in the body of this work should be modified to correspond with these age limits, where census returns state them differently.- Ed.)

1810.- Same as in 1800.

1820.- The number of males of 1 to 9 years of age, of 10 to 15, of 16 and 17, of 18 to 25, of 26 to 44, and of 45 or more; and of females as in the census of 1800.

1830.- The number of males of 1 to 4 years of age, of 5 to 9, of 10 to 14, of 15 to 19, of 20 to 29, and then of succeeding decades; and of females of the same age limits.

1840.- Same as in 1830.

NANTUCKET COUNTY, MASSACHUSETTS

(NOTE.- As regards the adjacent counties on the mainland, the census of Bristol County was omitted in 1790, but no Bunker head of family was found there in 1800: nor was any found in Barnstable County in 1790, or in Plymouth County in 1790 or 1800.- bg)

1790.- At Sherburn (alias Nantucket) there

1800.- Census taken before 24 Apr. 1801, and showed 779 dwellings, with a population of 2617 males, 2772 females, and 228 "persons of colour." The numbers to the right of the series of digits show the number of names on the original schedule that intervene between this and the next Bunker item.

INDEX OF NAMES

A parenthesis placed about the name of a female indicates that she has acquired this surname by marriage.

In the index of Bunkers, the name of the father follows in parenthesis, where useful for identification.

A name may be mentioned more than once on the page indicated, and it may not be indexed for the immediately succeeding pages when an individual or family is being considered at length.

Surnames used as personal names, as well as unusual names, may be separately indexed.

Except under BUNKER and its variations, personal names are not individualized.

Unusual spellings of an ordinary personal name are not always indexed, except under BUNKER.

1. The first part of the paper discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for the success of any business or organization. The author provides a detailed overview of the various methods used to collect and analyze data, highlighting the strengths and weaknesses of each approach. The discussion is supported by numerous examples and case studies, which illustrate the practical application of these techniques in real-world scenarios. The author also addresses common challenges and offers solutions to overcome them, ensuring that the reader has a comprehensive understanding of the subject matter.

2. The second part of the paper focuses on the role of technology in modern data management. It explores how advancements in software and hardware have revolutionized the way data is stored, processed, and analyzed. The author discusses the benefits of using specialized tools and platforms, such as increased efficiency, reduced errors, and improved data security. Additionally, the paper touches upon the ethical considerations surrounding data collection and usage, emphasizing the need for transparency and accountability. The author concludes by providing a list of recommended resources for further reading and a summary of the key points discussed throughout the paper.

3. The third part of the paper delves into the complexities of data integration and interoperability. It examines the challenges faced by organizations when trying to combine data from different sources and formats. The author discusses various strategies for ensuring data consistency and accuracy, such as data cleansing and validation. The paper also explores the importance of data governance and the role of data stewards in maintaining high standards of data quality. The author provides a detailed analysis of the factors that influence data integration success, including organizational culture, technical capabilities, and regulatory requirements. The discussion is supported by a series of diagrams and flowcharts, which help to clarify the complex relationships between different data systems and processes.

4. The final part of the paper discusses the future of data management and the emerging trends that will shape the industry. The author explores the potential of artificial intelligence and machine learning in data analysis, highlighting the benefits of these technologies in identifying patterns and insights. The paper also discusses the growing importance of data privacy and the impact of regulations such as GDPR. The author concludes by providing a vision for the future of data management, emphasizing the need for continuous learning and innovation. The paper is well-structured, easy to read, and provides a wealth of valuable information for anyone interested in the field of data management.

1. The first part of the paper discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It is essential for the company to have a clear and concise system in place to ensure that all data is properly recorded and stored. This will allow for easy access and retrieval of information when needed.

2. The second part of the paper focuses on the importance of regular communication and collaboration between all team members. It is crucial for everyone to stay informed about the company's goals and objectives, as well as the progress of various projects. Regular meetings and updates will help to ensure that everyone is working towards the same goals and that any issues are identified and resolved quickly.

3. The third part of the paper discusses the importance of maintaining a high level of transparency and accountability. This means that all team members should be open and honest about their work and progress, and should be held accountable for their actions. This will help to build trust and ensure that everyone is working in the best interests of the company.

4. The fourth part of the paper focuses on the importance of maintaining a strong and positive company culture. This means that all team members should be encouraged to work together, support each other, and maintain a positive attitude. A strong culture will help to attract and retain top talent, and will ensure that the company is able to achieve its goals and objectives.

5. The fifth part of the paper discusses the importance of maintaining a high level of security and data protection. This means that all data should be properly secured and protected from unauthorized access. This will help to ensure that the company's information is safe and secure, and will help to build trust with customers and partners.

6. The sixth part of the paper focuses on the importance of maintaining a high level of customer service. This means that all team members should be trained to provide excellent service to customers, and should be encouraged to go above and beyond to ensure that customers are satisfied. This will help to build a strong reputation for the company and ensure that customers are loyal and repeat business.

7. The seventh part of the paper discusses the importance of maintaining a high level of innovation and creativity. This means that all team members should be encouraged to think outside the box and come up with new ideas and solutions. This will help to ensure that the company is able to stay ahead of the competition and maintain a strong position in the market.

8. The eighth part of the paper focuses on the importance of maintaining a high level of financial stability. This means that all team members should be encouraged to manage the company's finances carefully and to ensure that the company is always in a position to meet its financial obligations. This will help to ensure that the company is able to sustain itself and continue to grow.

9. The ninth part of the paper discusses the importance of maintaining a high level of social responsibility. This means that all team members should be encouraged to consider the impact of the company's actions on the environment and society, and to take steps to minimize any negative impact. This will help to build a strong reputation for the company and ensure that it is seen as a responsible and ethical organization.

10. The tenth part of the paper focuses on the importance of maintaining a high level of flexibility and adaptability. This means that all team members should be encouraged to be open to change and to adapt to new circumstances. This will help to ensure that the company is able to respond quickly to changes in the market and maintain a strong position in the future.
